Friday 7th March

Dear parents and children,

What a great week we have had. Pancakes, Ash Wednesday, World Book Day, Stagecoach and sunshine.

Well done to everyone for their fantastic efforts in dressing up for World Book Day. We love seeing all of the costumes and talking to the children about the stories the characters come from. Also, thank you to all of the school staff who put in the extra effort to make the day special with all of the extra props and decorations. We really enjoy making it a celebration of children's books and stories.

Thank you to the PTFA who came in on Tuesday to help with pancakes. The children really enjoyed all of the amazing toppings on offer.

Maths March – Miss Sloan invites you all for family maths games in the chapel this march. The next session will be on Tuesday 11th March, then Wednesday 19th and Thursday 27th. Please pop along to join in. All welcome.
